REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 4701-8, dated 23*rd September* 1913.

Attention is invited to Section 17, Clause (i) of the Village Offices Regulation (No. IV of 1908) and the proviso thereto laying down that the decision of the Deputy Commissioner on appeal preferred against an order passed under the Regulation by the Assistant Commissioner shall be final. There is no second appeal in such cases unless they relate to dismissal or removal under Section 7 and suits under Section 11.

Circular No. 4710-7, dated 23*rd September* 1913.

Great difficulty is experienced in this office in determining whether on appeal is within time or not for want of information as to whether and when the order appealed against was communicated to the party. To avoid this inconvenience, it is desirable that Revenue officers should expeditiously communicate their order to the party concerned and file in the record a duplicate with the party's acknowledgment.

When an order is passed in the presence of the parties, it will be sufficient to note that fact on the record.

K. DORASWAMI IYER,
Revenue Commissioner.

Notification dated 19th September 1913.

It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi Satyamangala village, which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A.M., on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option, instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit twenty-five per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter, or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before sunset on the day previous to that appointed for the sale.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed, by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale, signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner, will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided, parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
